Dear Dick:

I have delayed scandalously in replying to your cordial letter of February 13th but Mr. Dulles was away for a couple of weeks and I did want him to see it and to indicate his preferences on the matter of our coming down to attend one of your seminars. From his point of view as well as my own, a day later in the spring would be more appropriate for our visit. Mr. Dulles is keen on seeing your program in operation.

May I add that both Mr. Dulles and Col. Baird were delighted at the opportunity to talk with you when you were here.

Sincerely yours,

/s/
